

01:33:34 Mary Pilotte: Wow, so much great information coming at us! Maybe you already have a few questions on your mind. Don't be shy - Feel free to drop them into the chat, and we will begin exploring those with our presenters from Indigo Farms at the end of the formal presentation portion of the event.

01:34:05 Daunelle Wulstein: Agreed! This is great info! I get so tired trying to come up with content!

01:34:19 Vicki Wissler: Reacted to "Agreed! This is grea..." with 👍

01:36:11 Jennifer Margison: I've seen a lot of solicitors pop-up in comments on Instagram posts. Is there a way to control and block that unwanted feedback off your account & out of customers faces?

01:40:07 Vicki Wissler: What was the term you used in the beginning of the research source? My sound was shaky and I missed the term 3 different times you said it.

01:41:26 Teece Nowell: Danielle did you say you use square for your website platform?

01:52:34 Staci and Rick: Q&A Question: What are the best ways to gain followers and email capture for marketing purposes?

01:53:34 iPad Cathy: Do you use newspaper or radio advertising at all?

01:58:20 Brad Nixon: Sorry, off topic or perhaps new presentation, how did you scale so quickly? Labor vs. profit?

02:01:35 Daunelle Wulstein: They can also review when they purchase through Square! It's always fun to receive nice reviews when people have bought products from you...

02:01:51 brido: You mentioned giving viewers "behind the scenes" pictures/videos. We are getting ready to plant our farm in the next couple of months. Do you think it's too early to start documenting and sharing in videos and reels? We already make and sell products with some lavender sourced from local farms.

02:02:24 Rusty: Has anyone used Constant Contact for CSM, or would that be applicable to this industry?

02:03:18 Teece Nowell: Replying to "You mentioned giving..."

I have this same question.
